APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP

The Chinese Heritage Association of Australia Inc. was formed in 2002 with the overall aim of promoting a better understanding of the Chinese Australian community.

In pursuing this aim, the Association's objectives are as follows:

- To increase awareness and understanding within the community of the Chinese contributions to Australia
- To encourage and assist members in the recording of family and community histories
- To undertake cultural heritage research
- To provide a forum where members can discuss and exchange ideas and information
- To support and encourage the preservation of records, sites and objects with special heritage significance
- To bridge the gap between early and more recent immigrants of Chinese origin
- To promote and represent the interests and concerns of Chinese Australians, and
- To promote friendship, cooperation and understanding between the Chinese Australian community and the wider Australian community.

The Chinese Heritage Association of Australia Inc. is a non-profit incorporated association. It has no religious or political affiliations.

MEMBERSHIP

Membership is open to anyone interested in the aims and objectives of the Association. We welcome your interest and membership. CHAA presents a program of activities based on the recording of family and community histories and cultural events.
