CHINESE VOICES FROM THE PAST: FILM AND SOUND

Join Peter Hack as he further explores the story of the NSW Chinese Women's Relief Fund through film and sound. Chinese Voices from the Past is a presentation of six pieces of newsreel footage from the late 1930s and a radio broadcast from 1943.*

Watch the Chinese Dragon from Hong Kong perform at the Sydney Showground as part of the Sesquicentenary Celebrations in 1938 and attend a fundraising event for the NSW Chinese Women's Relief Fund.

Join the funeral procession along George Street of James Wong Chuey, husband of the President of the NSW Chinese Women's Relief Fund. Be at the wharf to greet Anna May Wong on her arrival in Sydney to perform at the Tivoli Theatres in Melbourne and Sydney and raise funds for China relief.

Listen to Mrs Fabian Chow, and her young son, thanking the children of Australia for donating 100,000 pennies for war orphans in China.
