

The Yin and Yang of the Ox

SATURDAY 20th February 2021 2.30 pm

When the dependable Ox comes ashore on 12th February, 2021, it will be a Lunar New Year: The Year of the Ox, who is the second creature in the set of twelve.

Time again for another adventure with The Yin & Yang of the Chinese Zodiac.

Now in their ninth year, these talks by Chinese Heritage Association of Australia member Marilyn Sue Dooley, will consider the Ox in Chinese Customs and Culture, Language and Literature, Myth and Legend, Art and Agriculture.

Join us for the adventure.

Mitchell Theatre, Sydney Mechanics School of Arts

280 Pitt Street Sydney

Bookings essential due to COVID restrictions on numbers. Tickets: $10

📞 Kathie – 4861 3078

✉️ dblunt@bigpond.net.au

Please note that we are unable to offer refreshments.

Social distancing and masks are mandatory in the Mitchell Theatre.

CITY OF SYDNEY
SYDNEY
LUNAR
FESTIVAL
2021 12–21 Feb

[https://whatson.cityofsydney.nsw.gov.au/
major-events/sydney-lunar-festival](https://whatson.cityofsydney.nsw.gov.au/major-events/sydney-lunar-festival)

Chinese
Heritage
Association of Australia

澳洲華人歷史文物

Exploring and Sharing the History and Heritage of Chinese who have come to Australia

www.chineseheritage.org.au